

Liber R. by the Northern Indians and made his escape, and first with the Choptico Indians

Majo<sup>r</sup> Boareman Interpreter

Int. His L<sup>ssps</sup> heareing that the Choptico Indians had quitted their Towne hath sent for them to know the reason.

Ind: The Pascattoway Indians bid them secure themselves.

Int: Wherefore did the Pascattoways doe soe?

Ind: The Pascattoways had severall times bid them secure themselves for that the Sinniquos would come and cutt them off.

Int. His L<sup>spp</sup> has been informed that one of the Choptico
p. 239 Indians being lately at the Pascattoway ffort heard them say something w<sup>ch</sup> he liked not and that some English have been told by some of them that the Pascattoways were nought, what was the reason?

Ind. they know not any such thing

Int. Why are they more afraid now then at other times.

Ind. the Pascattoways soe often bidding them to secure themselves

Int. What reason have they to be afraid of the Sinniquos

Ind. The Pascattoways have drove feare into them.

Int. Doe they beleive the Pascattoways are truly afraid themselves

Ind. They know not, they think soe.

Int. What Induced the Sinniquos to Quarrel with the Pascattoways

Ind: They know not what the Pascattoway Indians themselves think for that they never make them acquainted with their Designes but they beleive the maine reason is that the Pascattoway Indians haveing formerly had warrs with the Susquehannohs, the Susquehannohs haveing mixed themselves with the Sinniquos have Engaged them in their Quarrell.

The Choptico Indians Dismissed and the King of Mattawoman and Jackanapes admitted, and first Jackanapes give his L<sup>spp</sup> and Councill this Acco<sup>t</sup> viz

That the Pascattoway Indians had lately sent for a present Six Belts and an Axe to the Quiagos who would not accept of it but sent the Axe to the Onondagoes and Onneydes who received it and whetted the edge and returned it to the Quiagoes, they tooke and Dulled the Edge and sent it back again to the Onondagoes and Onneydes where it still remaines, Some of the Janadores asked the Quiagoes why they would warr with the English who had never done them any hurt, who answered that they did not intend it but were resolved to
