

Resolved [nemine Contradicente that his] Ma^{ty} be addressed to returne our thanks for Original Journal.
 tributing to the assistance of New Yorke

Upon Discovery of the [trayterous and] designed Assassination of his Ma^{ty} sacred person prop[osed by his] Ex^{cy} that if this house do thinke that it may be for his Ma^{ty}s Service he will take care to secure all papists their horses, arms and ammunition ; but thanks God he fears no danger from them.

Upon which the house returne his Ex^{cy} their thanks for his Care and acquaint him that whereas they do not in the least apprehend any danger from them so they are of opinion there will be no occasion thereof.

Severall of the new Elected members of this House give to the use of the Free Schools as follows (to witt)

	1 tob.	}	The s ^d Gentlemen to be discharged from their Subscriptions in their Severall Countyes.
Mr James Crauford	1000
Mr Jenkins	1000
Mr William Hatton	1000
Mr William Helmsley	800
Mr George Ashman	600
Maj ^r W ^m Barton	800

Mr Anthony Workeman came before the house and gave 150^l Sterl: to the building of an house upon a Lott which his Ex^{cy} had already given together with tenn pounds Sterl: towards building the said house which is to be enjoyed by the said Anthony Workeman during his naturall life, and remayne over to the use of the Free Schools. Also the said Mr Workeman promised to leave all Improvements upon the said Lott in good and Sufficient Repair.

The house adjourned till 6 a Clock to morrow morning

Tuesday July the 7th 1696

Then the house met and read over what was done yesterday.

Proposed that in the Act of Religion it be said Ecclesiasticall fundamentall laws of England.

Put to the Vote if the s^d Bill shall be referred to the Consideration of the next sessions of Assembly, and carryed in the affirmative. p. 10 Whereupon resolved the following Message be sent to his Ex^{cy} and his Ma^{ty}s hon^{ble} Councill Viz^t

By the house of Burgesses July the 7th 1696.

To His Ex^{cy} the [Gov^r and the hon^{ble} Councill.]

We have with our [utmost Diligence and Care] considered