

Original it he hopes that you p'tending to be saveing patriotts will Journal. make it Legally.

As for your conceptions of March the 30th that if his Ex<sup>cy</sup> will not redress your aggrivances in the way represented he denyes your Rights and will not redress you att all he thinks to be some what arbitrary and illegall, if you can accuse him of this or any other matter or thing he Expects y<sup>u</sup> will do it before his most Sacred Maty: or before the Right hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords Com<sup>rs</sup> for Trade and foreigne plantations, and it would be a very great crime in the least to doubt but that all rights and Justice will be done to both parties.

It is remarqued upon the answer of the house this day brought by M<sup>r</sup> Campbell and others.

1st That the Bill of Revivall not passing can in no wise be laid to the charge of his Ex<sup>cy</sup> or his Matys hon<sup>ble</sup> Council, considering the passing it in those words would be directly opposite to one if not both of those two Royall Instructions of his Sacred Maty laid before you. Therefore you are the cause of all those ill consequences that shall happen for want of reviveing those Laws which will expire att the end of this sessions.

3rd Ab<sup>t</sup> the reflections cast upon his Matys hon<sup>ble</sup> Council the answer of the house is as ill resented as yo<sup>r</sup> intended resolve in that matter, Concerning the Comittee ab<sup>t</sup> Indian affaires in October his Ex<sup>cy</sup> dos say that he with the advise of his Matys hon<sup>ble</sup> Council have power (paramount to yours) of calling together any number of men to consult of any matter or thing for his Matys or the Countryes Service which that was for, and that greater number may appoint a comittee to draw up the Severall matters and things into certeine heads which was by him done and his Ex<sup>cy</sup> not with them, and who ever
p. 217 reported to your house and those which he called together upon that urgent and weighty occasion (in order to putting the liege people of this his Matys province to as little charge as possible durst not debate the matter with him and dos not prove it upon oath.

He looks upon it to be a false scandalous and Seditious Reporte upon this his Matys Governm<sup>t</sup>
