Gent^n
I am glad you seem to have so good an Impression of my Actions, and I will allways bend them to your Service, & ever esteeme my selfe obliged for all marks of respect You shall thinke me deserving of,

thô your Reguards seem to be retrenched to what they were when I was a Stranger to you; But nothwithstanding Gent^n I will allways vigorously assert what I have so often promised in being as good a Steward for you as I can which will consequently tend to the Gen^ll Satisfaction of the Province Gent^n Your most obliged faithfull humble
