Letter No. 84 [Deposition of Peter Brightwell of Prince Georges County, taken by P. Thomas]

March 16
1745/6
[Brightwell makes his Mark] This deponent being duely sworn deposeth & saith that on the 11th day of this Instant, being at the House of John Nicholls of the said County & falling into discourse with the Wife of the said Nicholls she said to him this deponent that she wish'd she lived within five Miles of a certain House, that she would run the risque of her neck but she would burn it. She said that she would set it on fire & then make her escape as fast as she could for fear of the Ammunition she Suspected to be in it. This deponent then told her it was dangerous to do such things, to which she replied, Well, she would do it. Then this deponent Ask'd her why she would do it, She answered because they would never for these Seven or five years (this deponent do's not remember w^{ch}) suffer any Woman to come into it, even the Wife of the Master of the House had been known to be at the Plantation a Month or five Weeks together & was never Suffer'd to come into it. This deponent Ask'd her whose House it was she Spoke of, she Answered Arnold Livers at Monococy. And that whenever the said Arnold Livers & his sett or company went into the said house there was always a Watch or Guard set About it. She aded that she had this information from a Woman named ——— Mitchell as this deponent thinks, who is a Roman Catholic.
