p. 204

[Adjournment of Talbot and Dorchester March Courts to June.]

And whereas many Persons who are Plaintiffs in Actions now depending in the said Courts, and which would be determined at the said first and second Tuesdays of March, if the said Courts were to sit and proceed to Business, may be indigent and necessitous, and may greatly, if not wholly depend on the Sums of Money or Tobacco, for which they have commenced and prosecuted such Actions, for supplying their Necessities, Payment of their Debts, or carrying on the Business of their Professions.

Be it Enacted, That on all Judgments which shall be had and recovered at June Court next, in Actions which are continued by this Act, it shall and may be lawful, at any Time before the tenth Day of August next, to issue Executions, to satisfy the Debts, Damages, and Costs, therein mentioned which said Executions shall stand in the same Condition, and be equally available to the Person or Persons suing out of the same, as if the same had been sued out before the tenth Day of May; any Thing, in any of the Laws of this Province, for staying Execution after the tenth Day of May, yearly, to the contrary thereof, notwithstanding.

[Executions issued on Judgments had in June to be under the like Circumstances with those on Judgments in March.]
