By the Upper House of Assembly 27.th Sept.<sup>r</sup> 1765.

Gentlemen

Understanding that the first Amendment proposed by this House, of the Ordinance for paying into the hands of a Committee of Your House the sum of £500 Currency by the Treasurer of the Western Shore is an Obstruction to the passing of that Ordinance, and being desirous of cultivating particularly on this Occasion a Good Correspondence between the two Houses We have agreed to Wave that Amendment and to pass the Ordinance without its Insertion Should You think proper to return it to Us for that purpose. But what follows after the Word "Treasurer" in the 9th Line of the Ordinance We expect will be left out according to Our former Proposition, for the Reason before given
