

U. H. J. of a regular Seminary for our Youth, liberally instituted and supported, and to express my warmest wishes that it may engage your Peculiar attention.
 Liber No. 36
 Oct. 13

The frequent vexatious and expensive Law Suits concerning the Boundaries of Land, occasioned by the variation of the Compass, have been already severely felt, and, unless some remedy be applied, must increase; wherefore I hope you will maturely consider the nature and degree of this mischief, and put an effectual stop to it by prudent Provisions.

The State and condition of the Publick Roads, the defects of the present Laws for keeping them in Repair, and the general Advantage which will result from opening a communication between our Merchants and distant settlers, deserve your attention. And I have experienced so much inconvenience from the want of a precise rule, by which the extent and Proper application of the penal Statutes of England maybe sufficiently ascertained, that I must, again, earnestly recommend this topick to your consideration.

p. 682 It will give me great pleasure to co-operate with you in ordaining such Laws as may be conducive to the welfare of this Province, as well in respect of the Subjects I have taken the Liberty to mention as of any other that may occur.
