

shall enter the objections at large on its Journal, and proceed to reconsider the Bill; if after such reconsideration, three-fifths of the members elected to that House shall pass the Bill, it shall be sent, with the objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if passed by three-fifths of the members elected to that House, it shall become a law; but in all such cases, the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays; and the names of the persons voting for or against the Bill, shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively; if any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within six days, (Sundays excepted), after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he signed it; unless the General Assembly shall by adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

SEC. 18. It shall be the duty of the Governor, semi-annually, and oftener if he deem it expedient, to examine, under oath, the Treasurer and Comptroller of the State, on all matters pertaining to their respective offices, and inspect and review their bank and other account books.

SEC. 19. He shall, from time to time, inform the Legislature of the condition of the State, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he may judge necessary and expedient.

SEC. 20. He shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons except in cases of impeachment, and in cases in which he is prohibited by other Articles of this Constitution; and to remit fines and forfeitures for offences against the State; but shall not remit the principal or interest of any debt due the State, except in cases of fines, and forfeitures; and before granting a nolle prosequi, or pardon, he shall give notice, in one or more newspapers, of the application made for it, and of the day on, or after which, his decision will be given; and in every case, in which he exercises this power, he shall report to either branch of the Legislature, whenever required, the petitions, recommendations and reasons, which influenced his decisions.

SEC. 21. The Governor shall reside at the seat of government, and receive for his services an annual salary of four thousand five hundred dollars.

SEC. 22. A Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall continue in office, unless sooner removed
