

mains in the exercise of the powers of government, fulfil and execute the instructions of administration, or hazard the displeasure of the king, which it cannot be expected he will do.—And whereas by act of assembly of this province, the powers of government, in the absence of the governor, devolve upon the president of the council, and therefore the governor's departure cannot occasion a dissolution or suspension of the present established form of government within this province, which this convention doth not think ought now to be changed, therefore Resolved, That it be signified to the governor, that the public quiet and safety, in the judgment of this convention, require that he leave this province, and that he is at full liberty to depart peaceably with his effects.

Upon the last resolve, the yeas and nays being required, they were as follow :
