

Mr. Allen

PROCEEDINGS.

MONDAY, the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred, being the day appointed by the constitution and form of government for the meeting of the general assembly, appeared in the senate,

JOHN THOMAS,
CHARLES CARROLL, of Carrollton,
WILLIAM HAMMOND DORSEY,
JAMES HOLLYDAY,
WILLIAM HINDMAN, and
WILLIAM HEMSLEY, junior, } Esquires,
Who adjourn till to-morrow morning.

T U E S D A Y, November 4, 1800.

THE same members appeared as on yesterday. John Grahame and Charles Goldsborough, junior, Esquires, appeared in the senate.

A sufficient number of members to compose a senate being convened, they severally qualified in the presence of each other, before Allen Quynn, Esquire, one of the justices of the peace for Anne-Arundel county, agreeably to the constitution and form of government.

The senate then proceeded to the election of a president; the ballot box being prepared, and the ballots deposited therein, on examination thereof it appeared, that John Thomas, Esquire, was unanimously elected.

Whereupon it is declared in the senate, that John Thomas, Esquire, is unanimously elected president thereof. The senate appointed Mr. William Sanders Green clerk, who qualified as such, by taking the several oaths required, and subscribing a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion.

The senate appointed Mr. Edward Roberts messenger, and Mr. Jonathan Parker door-keeper. ORDERED, That they be qualified.

The president communicates to the senate a letter from the secretary of the senate of the United States, with a copy of their journals at the first session of the sixth congress; which was read.

The following message was prepared, read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

BY THE SENATE, NOVEMBER 4, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

THE senate having a sufficient number of members to compose a house, are ready to proceed to the business of the session.

By order,

W. S. GREEN, clk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 4, 1800.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

YOUR message of this morning we have received; a quorum of the house of delegates being also assembled, we are ready to proceed to business. The time of sitting appointed by us is from nine o'clock in the morning till three o'clock in the afternoon.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read.

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

W E D N E S D A Y, November 5, 1800.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. John Chesley, Esquire, appeared, and qualified in the presence of the senate, before Allen Quynn, Esquire, one of the justices of the peace for Anne-Arundel county, agreeably to the constitution and form of government. The proceedings of Monday the third, and yesterday, were read.
