

1 I have not seen anybody pour tea in a saucer since I was
2 a boy on the farm.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Winslow, you have one
4 minute.

5 DELEGATE WINSLOW: Thank you.

6 The teacup theory in 1789 was expressed at 7 a time when the philosophy of government was that government
8 is best which governs least. We have long since discarded
9 that theory. We no longer believe in that theory. If what 10 you want is a government which can obstruct, if what you 11 want is a legislature which can keep from legislating, for 12 heaven's sakes, keep bicameral system, add another house,
13 add another house, add as many as you please.

14 If you want a legislature which can work, which 15 is visible, which is responsible, let's have the unicameral
16 system.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Does any delegate desire to speak
18 in opposition to the amendment?

19 Delegate Malkus, before I recognize you, since 20 you have already spoken, let me see if anybody else desires 21 to speak in opposition. Does any other delegate desire to
