THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 193 is referred to the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble.

That concludes the production and reading of the proposals. The next item on the calendar is motions and resolutions. There are, I believe, two resolutions and I understand they have both been distributed. You should have on your desk Resolution No. 5, by Delegate Malkus, and Resolution No. 6, by Delegate Sickles.

The Clerk will read Resolution No. 5.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 5 by Delegate Malkus.

A RESOLUTION concerning the pictorial presentation, "A Mighty Oak."

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I move the further reading of the proposed resolution be dispensed with and the resolution be considered as having been read

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: The motion is that we dispense with further reading of the proposed resolution.

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. It is so ordered. Resolution No. 6. The Clerk will read the resolution.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 6 by Delegate Sickles.

A RESOLUTION concerning the ratification and effective dates of the proposed Constitution.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I move that a further reading of the resolution be dispensed with and the resolution be considered as having been read.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: The motion is that so much as has been read be considered the reading of the resolution. All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. It is so ordered.

The Clerk calls attention to an oversight on my part. Resolution No. 5 is referred to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget. Resolution No. 6 is referred to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget.

Are there any other motions or resolutions?

I have only one very brief announcement. As I think most of you know, arrangements for the various ministers throughout the State who have been kind enough to come and offer the invocation at the beginning of each of our sessions have been made by the Convention's First Vice-President, Delegate Clark. He has a fairly complete list of those who have been invited to perform this function for us for some weeks in advance. Some of the delegates have asked me whether they may suggest names of their own ministers or others known to them. Any such suggestions should be submitted to Delegate Clark.

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: As I have already indicated, there will be a meeting of the Rules Committee immediately following adjournment of the session to take up Delegate Malkus' proposed Resolution No. 3, and to consider also our Fourth Report, in the light of the proposed resolution by Senator Clark.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will convene immediately following this session, and will meet again at 10:00 A.M. tomorrow morning, both of these meetings in our committee room at Shaw House. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen. Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch wishes to remind the delegates that tomorrow is Register of Wills day before our committee. The committee will pull out its rules of limited jurisdiction and consider only the matter of the Register of Wills. This meeting will not be held in our usual hearing room but in the Baltimore City delegation room of the Shaw House and we welcome all visitors. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble has this afternoon Judge Dulany Foster as a speaker, who will talk on ques-
