

street and Chatsworth street). It was purchased in 1866 for \$4,000. It is triangular in shape, and the dimensions at that time were 231 feet and $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches on Myrtle avenue, 247 feet and $\frac{1}{2}$ inch on Fremont avenue, and 87 feet 3 inches in the rear.

In 1908 the State gave a deed to the city in consideration of \$2,500, to a portion of the said lot as follows: 180 feet on Myrtle avenue, 192 feet 6 inches on Fremont avenue and 68 feet at the base, cutting off a triangle on which one of the city engine houses stands, leaving a lot of irregular shape of the following dimensions: 180 feet on Myrtle avenue, 54 feet and $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches on Fremont avenue and 87 feet 3 inches at one end and 68 feet at the other.

This property is improved by a shed and hay scales, costing about $20,000, making the total cost $21,500.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSES.

The State owns three warehouses in Baltimore city, one facing on South Charles street 150 feet, with a depth bounding on the north side of Conway street to Light street 317 feet; two others, one facing on Light street and the other on Charles street 84 feet, with a depth, including both, 317 feet.

These properties were acquired by four deeds, as follows: One from Charles F. Mayer, Tr., June 6, 1846; John Carroll Walsh, Tr., June 6, 1846; Moses Sheppard, December 22, 1826, and John B. Howell et al., June 16, 1836. The estimated value of these three properties taken together is $800,000.

FORESTRY RESERVES.

The State has recently acquired two pieces of property by gift to be held as part of the forestry reserves; one piece, the gift of John W. Garrett and Robert Garrett, of 1,917 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres in Garrett county; and the other, the gift of John M. Glenn and wife 43 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres in Howard county.

TOTAL COST AND VALUE.

The foregoing shows the value of the State's lands and the improvements thereon to be approximately $7,986,800.
