

SEC. 32. Compensation provided for in this Act shall be payable for injuries sustained or death incurred by employees engaged in the following extra-hazardous employments:

1. The operation, including construction and repair, of railways operated by steam, electric or other motive power, street railways and incline railways, but not in their construction when constructed by any person other than the company which owns or operates the railways, including work of express, sleeping, parlor and dining car employees on railways trains.

2. Construction and operation of railways not included in paragraph one.

3. The operation, including construction and repair, of car shops, machine shops, steam and power plants, and other works for the purposes of any such railway, or used or to be used in connection with it when operated, constructed or repaired by the company which owns or operates the railway.

4. The operation, including construction and repair, of car shops, machine shops, steam and power plants, not included in paragraph 3.

5. The operation, including construction and repair, of telephone lines and wires for the purposes of the business of a telephone company, or used or to be used in connection with its business, when constructed or operated by the company.

6. The operation, including construction and repair, of telegraph lines and wires for the purposes of the business of a telegraph company, or used or to be used in connection with its business, when constructed or operated by the company.

7. Construction of telegraph and telephone lines not included in paragraphs 5 and 6.

8. The operation, within or without the State, including repair, of vessels other than vessels of other States or countries used in interstate or foreign commerce, when operated or repaired by the company.

9. Shipbuilding, including construction and repair in a ship yard or elsewhere, not included in paragraph 8.

10. Longshore work, including the loading or unloading of cargoes or parts of cargoes of grain, coal, ore, freight, general merchandise, lumber or other products or materials, or moving or handling the same on any dock, platform or place, or in any warehouse or other place of storage.

11. Subaqueous or caisson construction and pile driving.
