

signature is affixed or his veto superseded by the legislature) in which to collect petition signatures.

The present provisions of Article XVI which limit the bills that are refer-able are satisfactory with the exception of Section 6. That section was added in order to facilitate the passage of Article XVI. Having served its purpose, the section should be deleted.