

tion and have the like operation and force as if such acts had been continued at the last session of the general assembly.

at last session.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That such acts as would expire with the present session of the general assembly, be, and the same are hereby continued to the end of the session of the next general assembly of this state.

Acts continued.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act directing that the Rules of the several Courts in this State, be published for the information of the People.—1839, ch. 55.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, entitled, an act directing that the rules of the several courts in this state, be published for the information of the people, as requires the clerks of the several courts therein mentioned, and the register of the high court of chancery, to publish the rules of their respective courts once in every year, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Part of an act repealed

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the register of the high court of chancery, and the clerks enumerated in said act to which this is a supplement, be, and they are hereby required, according to the provisions of said act, to cause the rules of their respective courts to be published once in every fifth year from the passage of this act, and it shall be their further duty to keep a printed copy of the rules of their respective courts set up in their respective offices for the information of the public.

Rules of courts to be published every fifth year.

AN ADDITIONAL SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act to regulate the issuing of Licenses to Traders, Keepers of Ordinaries, and others, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventeen.—1839, ch. 57.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That before the grand jury of any county, or of the city of Baltimore, shall be authorized to make presentment of any person whose name may be shown to them by the sheriff of said county, or city of Baltimore, in pursuance of the first section of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-two, as a delinquent under the provisions of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventeen, they shall be first satisfied from other and competent testimony, that the party whose name is thus shewn by the sheriff, has failed within the last six months before the sitting of the grand jury, to comply with the provisions of the said original act to which this is a supplement.

Grand jury to be satisfied before presentment that the party has failed to comply with the law, within the last six months.