

THE
PUBLIC LOCAL LAWS
OF MARYLAND,

PASSED AT DECEMBER SESSION, 1839.

ALLEGANY COUNTY.

AN ACT, entitled, a Supplement to an Act, entitled, an Act, for the Re-assessment and Re-valuation of the Real and Personal Property of Allegany County, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight.—1839, ch. 12.

WHEREAS, at the December session of 1838, an act, entitled, Preamble.
an act for the re-assessment and re-valuation of the real and personal property of Allegany county was passed, the eleventh section of said act makes it obligatory upon the assessors of said county to make a return of the assessment and valuation of said property to the commissioners of Allegany county, on or before the first day of October, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine; And whereas, the assessors failed to make said return according to the eleventh section of said act for want of time,

Be it therefore enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, (That) the return of the assessment and valuation of the real and personal property of Allegany county, be made upon the first Monday of April, 1840, to the commissioners of Allegany county, and if ratified and confirmed by them, the said commissioners of Allegany county, or a majority of them, at their next regular or stated meeting after the said return shall have been made, shall be good and valid to all intents and purposes. Assessment, if confirmed, to be valid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the eleventh section of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter two hundred and fifteen, for the assessment and re-valuation of the real and personal property of Allegany county, is hereby repealed and of no effect. Repeal.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to allow such compensation as they may deem reasonable to the person or persons, who made out the books and papers for the use of the assessors appointed under the act to which this is a supplement. Compensation for preparing books, &c.
