

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

Maryland, Act:

At a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held at the City of Annapolis, on the 1st day of January, 1868, His Excellency, THOMAS SWANN, being Governor, the following Laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT to repeal Sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-seven and thirty-eight of the Fourth Article of the Code of Public Local Laws, relating to the City of Baltimore, and to substitute in lieu of Sections thirty-four, thirty-five and thirty-seven the following:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven of the Fourth Article of the Code of Public Local Laws relating to the city of Baltimore, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that the following be substituted for Sections thirty-four, thirty-five and thirty-seven. Repeal.

Sec. 34. The Mayor and City Council have power to provide by ordinance for the appointment, as other city officers are appointed, of the Trustees of the Poor of Baltimore City, and to prescribe the powers and duties of such Trustees. Trustees—how appointed. Provided, that until the Mayor and City Council shall have acted in the premises, the powers and duties of the Trustees of the Poor of Baltimore City shall be such as are prescribed in and by those Sections of this Article under the title "Almshouse" not hereby repealed, and provided further, that when the said Mayor and City Council shall have, by ordinance, prescribed the powers and duties of the Trustees of the Poor of
