

HOOPER STEELE MILES, Treasurer

Hooper Steele Miles was born in Cambridge, January 27, 1895. He was educated in the Baltimore City public schools and the University of Maryland School of Law (LL.B., 1916). Until 1937 he practiced law in Salisbury, and during this time he was a delegate to the General Assembly (1920 Session) and city solicitor for Salisbury (1925-32). He was president and chief executive officer of the County Trust Company from 1932 to 1937 when he moved to Baltimore to be a director and executive vice-president of the Baltimore National Bank. At present he is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the Baltimore National Bank and a director of several other banks.

In 1935 the General Assembly elected Mr. Miles Treasurer of Maryland. He is now serving his seventh consecutive term.

Mr. Miles married the former A. Frances Williams in 1919 and has two children and three grandchildren. He is active in civic and charitable organizations and is the author of The Maryland Executive Budget System, published in 1942.

LLOYD L. SIMPKINS, Secretary of State

Lloyd L. Simpkins was born in Mount Vernon, June 6, 1922. He was educated in the public schools of Somerset County, University of Maryland (B.S., 1947), and University of Maryland Law School (LL.B., 1952).

In 1941, he enlisted in the U. S. Navy as a seaman and was discharged as Ensign in 1946, after service in the South Pacific.

From 1951 through 1959, Mr. Simpkins was a member of the House of Delegates from Somerset County. During this time, he served as chairman of the Agriculture Committee (1951-1955), chairman of the Judiciary Committee (1955-1959), and as a member of the Legislative Council (1955-1959). He was Executive Assistant to the Governor from 1959 to 1961. Governor Tawes appointed him Secretary of State of Maryland in January 1961.

Mr. Simpkins is a partner of the law firm of Simpkins & Simpkins in Princess Anne. He is also engaged in the seafood business. He is former Attorney to the Town of Princess Anne and Attorney to the County Liquor Board.

Mr. Simpkins married the former Betty Wilson in 1957 and has one daughter. He is active in fraternal, service and veterans' organizations.