The Occupational Health and Safety Advisory Board, originally established by Chapter 44, Acts of 1955, as the Occupational Safety Advisory Board, adopted its present name by Chapter 530, Acts of 1968. The Board consists of seven members all of whom are appointed by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Secretary of Licensing and Regulation for six-year terms. Two of the appointed members represent industry, two represent labor, two represent the health professions, and one, who serves as Chairman, represents the general public. Both of the members representing the health professions must be recommended by the State Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. The Commissioner of Labor and Industry serves as an ex officio member of the Board.

The Occupational Health and Safety Advisory Board formulates and proposes to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry such reasonable rules and regulations, or modifications, amendments or repeals of rules and regulations, for the prevention of accidents and occupational diseases in every employment or place of employment in Maryland except those subject to the regulatory authority of the Public Service Commission (Code 1957, 1969 Repl. Vol., 1970 Supp., Art. 89, secs. 29, 31A, and 32).
