The Advisory Council on Prevailing Wage Rates was created by Chapter 558, Acts of 1969. It advises the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and submits recommendations to him on hourly wage rates applicable to contracts and subcontracts for public works within the State. The Council establishes certain standards for hours of work and rates of pay, conditions of employment, and duties of certain public officials under certain contracts and subcontracts for public works in the State. The Council also calls upon other agencies of State and local government for statistical data and reports.

The Council consists of six members appointed to three-year terms by the Governor with the advice of the Secretary of Licensing and Regulation and the advice and consent of the Senate. Two members represent management in the building and construction industry, two represent labor in the building and construction industry, and two are public representatives. The Governor annually designates a chairperson.

Authorization for the Council continues until July 1, 1994 (Code 1957, Art. 100, secs. 96-107A).
