The State Advisory Board for Juvenile Services was created in 1966 as the State Advisory Board of Juvenile Services (Chapter 126, Acts of 1966). In 1987, the Board received its present name (Senate Bill no. 672). The Board recommends to the Director of the Juvenile Services Agency policies and programs designed to improve State juvenile services. The Board participates in planning for development and use of resources to meet Agency needs as well as in interpreting Agency objectives to the public.

The Board consists of eighteen members. They are appointed by the Governor and include representatives of the Juvenile Services Agency, the State Department of Education, the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the Social Services Administration, the Maryland State Police, the General Assembly, the judiciary, and a child welfare agency. Seven members represent the public. Of these, three must be between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five and at least one must have been under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Services Agency. Members serve three-year terms. The Governor designates the chairperson (Code 1957, Art. 41C, secs. 2-106 through 2-110).
