

purposed evil free me so far in your most generous thoughts, that I have shot my arrow o'er the house and hurt my brother."

There are those of you, Senators, with whom I have been so long and intimately associated, and for whom I entertain so much regard and esteem, that I cannot contemplate the probability of a final dissolution of our intercourse here without a formal, but faithful expression of my regret.

In conclusion, I tender to Senators and officers, my thanks for the courtesy and support they have invariably extended to me, and best wishes for their continued health and success.

I pronounce this Senate adjourned sine die.

ATTEST:

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.
