

degrees and fifteen minutes, east five hundred and nine and five-tenths feet; thence south eight degrees and fifty minutes, east two hundred and forty-four feet; thence south eight degrees and fifty minutes, west three hundred and fifty-two feet; thence south three degrees, east five hundred and two and five-tenths feet; thence south one degree and forty minutes, east five hundred and forty-three and five-tenths feet to the Potomac River; thence with said river the following courses and distances: north fifty-one degrees and thirty-nine minutes, east five hundred and three and three-tenths feet; north thirty-four degrees and fifty-four minutes, east two hundred and thirty-one feet; north twenty-one degrees and nine minutes, east three hundred and thirty feet; north two degrees and thirty-six minutes, west one hundred and ninety-eight feet; north thirty-two degrees and twenty-one minutes, west three hundred and thirty feet; and thence north seventy-six degrees and forty-two minutes, west thirty-three feet to the place of beginning; containing sixty-six acres, two roods and seventeen and a quarter square perches of land, be the same more or less; provided, always, that this cession and jurisdiction are granted upon the express condition that this State shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States, in and on the said ceded lands and territory, or the portion thereof that may be so as aforesaid conveyed, so far as that all civil and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of this State, against any person or persons charged with crimes committed without said lands and ceded territory, may be executed therein in the same way an manner as though this cession and consent had never been made and granted, except so far as such process may effect the real and personal property of the United States within the said ceded territory.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said lands or portion thereof when conveyed as aforesaid, and over which the jurisdiction is granted by this Act, together with all personal property which may thereafter be within the bounds thereof, belonging to the United States, or to any of the officers or agents of