

CHAP. 215. and orders, of the said corporation, and the same seal at their pleasure to break, alter and renew.

Professors, teachers, &c. to be appointed.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees, and their successors, or a majority of them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint professors, teachers and assistants, for instructing the students and schools of the said academy in such sciences and branches of education as they shall think proper and suitable to be taught therein; and to make fundamental ordinances or regulations for the good government of the said academy, and the instruction of the youth as aforesaid; and by these ordinances to appoint such number of their own body, not less than five, as they may think proper, to be a quorum or committee for transacting all general and necessary business of the said seminary, and making temporary rules for the management thereof; and also by the said ordinances to delegate to the said professors and teachers, such powers and authorities as they shall think expedient for the standing government and discipline of the said seminary, and the execution of the regulations thereof; and also by the said ordinances to make such regulations for the directions, visitation and examination, of the said seminary, and the students and scholars therein, as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; Provided always, that the said ordinances be not repugnant to the constitution and the laws of this state.

Proviso.

Meetings of trustees—appointment of treasurer, &c.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees, and their successors, or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances, or by their own adjournments they may direct; and when so assembled, they shall have power from time to time to appoint a president, treasurer and secretary; to make contracts with the professors or teachers relative to the instruction of the scholars to be placed under their care, and for the payment of their salaries; to examine the progress of the students and scholars in their learning; to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline and government of the said academy, and the execution of their ordinances; and generally to manage the estate and concerns of the said seminary in such manner as they shall deem best for the advancement and advantage of the institution.

CHAP. CCXVI.

Passed Jan 7, 1812
1805, ch. 113.

An Additional Supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising the drawing of a Lottery to defray the expense of building a Masonic Hall in the City of Baltimore.* Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 314.

Repealed, with the original act, by Nov, 1812, ch. 110.

CHAP. CCXVII.

Passed Jan. 7, 1812 An Act for the payment of the Journal of Accounts. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 515.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears by the journal of accounts of this session, that there is due from this state the sum of thirty-two thousand six hundred and twenty dollars and twelve cents and one third of a cent;