

CHAP. 128. on a suitable building for the use of the library company of Baltimore, and that the said managers, or such person or persons as a majority of them shall authorise, may sell the tickets in such lottery or lotteries in the city of Baltimore, or in any part of this state, free from any tax thereon.

Vacancies, how to be supplied

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any one or more of the persons above named as managers to conduct the said lotteries shall die, resign or refuse to act, the directors of the library company of Baltimore, for the time being, may appoint one or more managers to fill the vacancy thereby occasioned, and the person or persons so appointed shall have the same powers and authority to act under this law as those who are named herein.

Managers to give bond

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That before the managers herein before named, or to be appointed as aforesaid, shall proceed to act under this law, they shall execute a bond to the state of Maryland, in the penal sum of sixty thousand dollars, with condition that they will well and truly conduct the drawing of said lottery or lotteries, and pay all prizes that shall be drawn therein at the expiration of sixty days after the conclusion of the drawing of such lottery or lotteries, to the persons holding the tickets entitled to such prizes, if the same shall be demanded within six months after the conclusion of such drawing; and that they will pay over the amount raised by such lottery or lotteries, after deducting all expenses and commissions as aforesaid, to the directors of the library company of Baltimore, for the time being, to be by them applied as aforesaid; which bond shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of Baltimore county, and suits may be brought and prosecuted thereon, or upon any office copy thereof, at the instance and for the use of any person or persons interested, in the same manner as suits are brought and prosecuted on other bonds given to the state.

* Dec 1813, ch. 103 An Act Supplementary to an act(a), entitled, An act to lay out and open two Roads in Queen-Anne's County. Lib. TH. No. 4, fol. 385.

Preamble

WHEREAS doubts have arisen of the propriety of allowing any damages to those persons who have signed the petition for the road, running from Doctor Whittington's farm to the head of Chester; therefore,

Sum to be levied and paid over

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Queen-Anne's county be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to levy such sum or sums of money on the assessable property of said county, as the commissioners may adjudge sufficient to indemnify those persons who have or may suffer by passing the road through their lands, except such of them as have declared in writing, or otherwise, they wish no compensation, and when so levied the said sum or sums of money shall be collected and paid over to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, in the same manner as other county charges are collected and paid.
