CHAP. CXI.

An Act for the benefit of Hugh Anderson, of Montgomery County. Passed Jan. 28 1805 Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 175. A Private Act.

CHAP. CXII.

An Act to provide for rendering passable through Baltimore County the public Road leading from the City of Baltimore, by Belle-Air, in Harford County, to Peach Bottom Ferry, on the River Susquehanna. Passed Jan. 28 1805 Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 176.

See 1800, ch. 39, and the acts there referred to.

WHEREAS under the law heretofore enacted for the opening the above mentioned road, the same hath been done, and the road aforesaid made conveniently passable entirely across Harford county, and that part of said road leading through Baltimore county remaining in many parts of it impassable, renders all that has been done by Harford county, and the expenditure of Baltimore county, in opening said road through the same, of little use, by reason of which the desirable object of both said counties is altogether defeated, and that part of the state deprived of the convenient and very advantageous communication between the city of Baltimore and the river Susquehanna, contemplated by the law which directed the said road to be opened; for remedy thereof, Preamble.

2. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Baltimore county shall be and they are hereby authorised and directed to appoint a supervisor for the said road, leading as aforesaid from Baltimore, through Belle-Air, to the Peach Bottom Ferry, and the said supervisor is hereby authorised and directed to hire such a number of men as the levy court shall think proper, and at such wages as the said levy court shall direct, to clear and repair said road within the limits of Baltimore county, and to make the same conveniently passable for carriages of burthen, except such part thereof, for the opening and clearing of which a sum of money was directed to be levied upon Baltimore county by an act of November session, eighteen hundred and four,* and the expense of clearing and repairing the part of said road as aforesaid is hereby directed to be defrayed by the said levy court from the funds for the support of the criminals in Baltimore county, out of any surplus money therein. Levy court to appoint a supervisor.
