

JUNE 1809.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 11.

Survivor to have the full benefit of this act.

10. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in case of the death of either of the said petitioners before relief shall be obtained under this act, the survivors or survivor, upon complying with the terms of this act on his or their part, shall be entitled to the full benefit hereby given, and be subject to all the pains and penalties thereof.

Passed June 9.

CHAP. XII.

An Act annulling the Marriage of Charles Farrow, and Ann his Wife. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 139.

Passed June 9. 1803, ch. 48.

CHAP. XIII.

*An Additional Supplement to an act*, entitled, An act to authorise a Lottery to raise a sum of money for the repairs of Shrewsbury Church, in Kent County.* Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 140.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a law passed at November session, in the year eighteen hundred and three, authorising a lottery to raise a sum of money for the repairs of Shrewsbury church, in Kent county, which directed the commissioners therein named, and in the supplement which passed at November session, in the year eighteen hundred and five†, before they began to dispose of, or make sale of any of, the tickets, to give their bond to the state of Maryland, conditioned for the payment of ten thousand dollars, for the performance of the trust reposed in them, and to lodge such bond in the clerk's office of Kent county, there to be recorded, and upon an office copy suit or suits may be instituted against the obligors therein mentioned, or any of them, or their, or any of their legal representatives, for any breach or noncompliance with the condition thereof; and it has been stated, that the said commissioners took upon themselves to act, and propose a scheme and make sale of the tickets, and have drawn the lottery, before the bond was executed and signed by the whole of the commissioners, and have not lodged the bond in the clerk's office, as was directed by the original act and the supplement thereto, to which this is an additional supplement; and doubts have arisen whether they could institute suits for any monies due to them for the sale of the tickets, or otherwise, for the benefit of the parish or institution;

† Ch. 76.

Each commissioner having taken upon himself to act shall be liable, &c.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every one of the commissioners, having taken upon themselves to act, and proceeded to draw the said lottery, shall be liable in all cases in the same manner as they would or might have been by the original act, and the supplement thereto, provided they had all signed the said bond, and lodged in the clerk's office, as was directed to have been done; and all suit or suits that has been, or may hereafter be, brought for against the said commissioners, in consequence of their neglect, refusal or nonperformance, of any of them, their, or any of their legal representatives, shall be deemed legal and valid, as they would or might have been intended by the original act, or the supplement thereto, to which this is an additional supplement, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Passed June 9.

CHAP. XIV.

An Act to authorise the Governor and Directors of the Susquehanna Canal Company to raise a sum of money by Lottery for the purpose therein mentioned. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 141.

Authorised to raise $50,000 by lottery

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the governor and directors of the Susquehanna canal company be