

C H A P. VII.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of the poor in the counties of Dorchester and Somerset. Passed January 20.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained whether the justices of the counties of Dorchester and Somerset can of right exercise the power of levying money for the support of the poor in their respective counties for a limited time, under an act, entitled, An act for the relief of the poor in the counties of Dorchester and Somerset, passed November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-five: To remove the same, Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the county of Dorchester, until the end of the year seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, and the justices of the county of Somerset, until the end of the year seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, shall, and they are hereby empowered and directed, to levy annually, in the usual manner, in their respective counties, exclusive of the money to be levied for the building and providing for the poor-houses, such sums of money as shall, to the trustees of the poor in each county aforesaid, appear proper and necessary for the subsistence and accommodation of their poor, not exceeding seven shillings and six-pence in the hundred pounds; which said sums, when collected, shall be paid by the collector to the order of such trustees, or the major part of them, under their common seal, who are hereby authorized and required to receive and apply the same to the use and purposes as is directed to be done in the ninth clause of the above recited act. Justices may levy money, &c.

An ACT for extending and continuing South-street, in Frederick-town in Frederick county, to the Conococheague road. Passed January 20.

WHEREAS many inhabitants of Frederick-town in Frederick county, and other citizens of this state, by their petition to this general assembly have set forth, that they are put to great inconvenience in passing to and from the county from and to South-street, in the said town, by reason of the communication to the Conococheague road being interrupted by a lot of land belonging to George Pence, through which he will not consent to South-street being continued and extended; and have therefore prayed, that an act may pass extending and continuing South-street westwardly, to strike the Conococheague road, on such terms as to this general assembly should seem reasonable; Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That the justices of Frederick county court shall be, and are hereby empowered, to order and direct the said street called South-street, in Frederick-town aforesaid, to be laid out, continued, and extended westwardly, till it intersects Conococheague road, and are hereby empowered and directed to value and ascertain the damages which shall or may be occasioned by such road to the proprietor or proprietors of the land through which the same shall be so extended; and upon payment or tender of such damages by any person or persons to the proprietor or proprietors aforesaid, the said road shall become a public road and highway. Street to be laid out, &c.

C H A P. IX.

An ACT for the relief of the executors of the testament and last will of John Cadwalader, deceased. (A private act.) Passed January 20.

C H A P. X.

An ACT to prevent any person from acting as an attorney at law in the county where he is register of wills. Passed January 20.

BE it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That from and after the twenty-fifth day of March next, no person, being register of wills for any county in this state, shall plead as an attorney at law in any court in the county where he is register of wills, for any person or persons, on any pretence whatsoever; Registers not to plead as attorneys, &c.
