

election as elected to a seat in the Senate or House of Delegates shall be allowed any salary, mileage or other compensation, unless the party so contesting shall establish his right to such seat.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS

153. Right of Suffrage and Conduct of Election. Each citizen of this State entitled to vote for Delegates to the General Assembly shall have the right to vote for the whole number of electors as provided in Section 154. The Presidential electors of the candidates for President and Vice-President who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared to be elected as said electors, and shall be deemed so appointed. The said election shall in all respects be conducted as other elections, except as otherwise provided in this Article, and the returns thereof made and canvassed as hereinbefore directed.

154. Election by General Ticket. On the day fixed by law of the United States for choice of President and Vice-President of the United States there shall be elected by general ticket as many electors of President and Vice-President as this State shall be entitled to appoint. The names of the candidates for the office of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall not be printed on the ballot, but in lieu thereof the names of the candidates of each political party for the office of President and Vice-President shall be printed thereon. A vote for said candidates for President and Vice-President shall be deemed and counted as a vote for each of the Presidential electors of said party filed according to the provisions of this Article.

155. Vacancies Among Electors. Upon the meeting of the persons returned elected as electors of President and Vice-President, or of as many of said persons as may attend on the day appointed by the Constitution and laws of the United States, the said electors who are present, before proceeding to perform the duties reposed in them, shall fill any vacancy which may exist in the said college of electors at such meeting, whether such vacancy be occasioned by absence or otherwise. The said person or persons so appointed to fill such vacancy or vacancies shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of those proclaimed by the Governor as duly elected electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

156. Meeting of Electors. The electors for this State shall meet in the State House in the City of Annapolis. After taking and subscribing the oath prescribed by Article 1, Section 6 of the Constitution, before the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, or in his absence before one of his deputies, they shall give their votes for President and Vice-President of the United States, on the day fixed by law of the United States for meetings of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, and shall cast their votes for the candidates who have received the majority of the votes cast in the State of Maryland.

UNITED STATES SENATOR

157. General Provisions. (a) Date of Election. Elections of United States Senators from Maryland, except in cases of election for the purpose of filling any vacancy or vacancies in said office hereinafter provided for, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first
