

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general survey of the state of the country at the time of the Revolution.
 It is a very interesting and valuable work, and one which every student of the history of the United States should read. It is a very good introduction to the study of the Revolution, and one which will give the reader a very clear and correct idea of the state of the country at that time. It is a very interesting and valuable work, and one which every student of the history of the United States should read.
