

CHAP. 89.

Exception

recorded in their respective offices, in the manner prescribed by the first section of this act.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the provisions of the first and second sections of this act, shall not extend to any clerk in whose office there may be such an alphabetical index, as is required by this act.

CHAPTER 89.

Passed Mar. 13, 1834 An act to provide for building a new court house in the town of Cumberland, in Allegany county.

Commissioners to construct, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Haye, John G. Hoffman, Burgess Magruder, Jonathan Hendrixson, Henry Myers, Andrew Bruce, Richard Beall, William Harness and Martin Rizen, Senior, of Allegany county, or a majority of them, shall be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, with full power and authority to contract for the building and entire completion of or for all necessary materials for building a new court house with suitable apartments for the court and juries, clerk and register of wills, in the town of Cumberland, in Allegany county: Provided, the same shall not exceed five thousand dollars in cost.

Directions given

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall locate and cause said court house with suitable apartments for the court and jury, clerk and register of wills, to be built west of Wills' creek, in the town of Cumberland, on some part of the public grounds lying south of Washington street, being two of the original four lots reserved by Thomas Bealle, of Samuel, the original proprietor of the town of Cumberland, on the west side of Wills' creek, for the purpose of erecting public buildings in said county.

Levy

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners for Allegany county are hereby authorised, directed and required to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, at the time of laying their next public levies, the sum of one thousand dollars, and so continue annually at their respective levy terms, to levy one thousand dollars for four successive years, in addition to the first levy as above named, together with the collector's commission for collection of the same, for the purpose of building and erect-