

CHAPTER 344.

AN ACT supplementary to an act passed at January session, eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, entitled an additional supplement to an act to incorporate the Roman Catholic Congregation in Baltimore town, passed November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-five, chapter fifteen, to enable the said corporation to purchase a new burial ground.

Preamble WHEREAS, by the act of the General Assembly, passed at January session, eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, the Trustees of the Catholic Cathedral Church of Baltimore, and their successors, were authorized and empowered, in addition to the ground and premises which the said corporation was authorized to purchase and use as a burial ground, by the act of eighteen hundred and fourteen, chapter two, and eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter three hundred and eighty-four, to purchase, hold and use for a burial ground attached to said church, any lands and premises in Baltimore county not exceeding one hundred acres; and—

Preamble WHEREAS, in part performance of the authority and power conferred as aforesaid, said corporation has purchased lands situated and lying in Baltimore county, on the northernmost side of the old Frederick Road, and part of a tract of land called Bonnie Brae; said lands containing sixty-four acres, one rood and fifteen square perches, and particularly described by metes and bounds in a deed from Charles H. McBlair and wife, to William Kennedy and others, dated November the tenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, and recorded among the land records of Baltimore county, in liber E. H. A., number sixty-four, folio three hundred and twenty-eight, &c., and has expended, and is about further to expend large sums of money in adapting the said lands to the purposes of a cemetery; and—

Preamble WHEREAS, it is proper that said corporation should be encouraged in its laudable design, and that the
