CHAPTER 122.

An act to extend the time of taking Appeals from the Chancery Court, in a certain case therein mentioned. Passed Feb 19

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in the case of Perigrine Warfield, Gustavus Warfield, Samuel Thomas and wife, Charles A. Warfield, and Richard Snowden and wife, against Henry R. Warfield, and Louisa V. Warfield, in the high court of chancery, upon which a final decree was passed by the chancellor on the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, it shall and may be lawful for Nicholas Snowden and his wife, and Isaac Knight and his wife, or either of them, or the heirs or representatives of either of them, to appeal to the court of appeals for the correcting of errors, if any exist in said decree; Provided, such appeal shall be prosecuted within three months from the passage of this act; And provided also, that the requisites of the law regulating appeals shall in all other respects be complied with, and that the court of appeals shall have power to hear and adjudge the same as if an appeal had been originally prayed within the time now limited by law, any act of assembly or usage of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.
