

demned, or any flour whatsoever, other than for his own family use, under the penalty of five dollars for each barrel by him purchased.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That every inspector of flour, who shall be appointed for the city of Frederick, shall on his appointment and before executing the duties of said office, make oath or affirmation before the mayor of Frederick city, or a justice of the peace for the county, that without fear, favor, affection, malice, partiality or respect of persons, he will diligently and carefully view, examine and inspect all flour brought to the said city of Frederick, and which he shall be called upon to view, examine and inspect, to the best of his skill, knowledge and ability; and that no flour shall be passed or branded by him without his viewing and examining the same: that he will not brand or cause to be branded as merchantable, any cask or casks of flour that do not appear to the best of his skill, to be, in all respects, sufficiently clean, sweet and merchantable—and that he will pass and brand all such cask or casks of flour as shall appear to him sufficiently clean, sweet and merchantable, according to the degree thereof, to the best of his skill and knowledge, and according to the laws and ordinances in that behalf existing in the city of Frederick.

Inspectors Oath.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, for any person or persons carrying, sending or transporting flour from the city of Frederick, to the city of Baltimore, to export the same, or sell or otherwise dispose of the same; and the same may be thence exported without being subject to a re-inspection in the city of Baltimore; Provided, That the said flour so carried, sent or transported from the aforesaid city of Frederick, to the city of Baltimore, be inspected in the said city of Frederick, by a regular inspector appointed by the governor and council of this state, or his deputy duly authorised.

Flour may be exported without re-inspection.

Proviso.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the several inspectors of flour in this state, shall, on the head of every cask of flour inspected by them, brand their respective names, and the name of the town or city, where the said inspection shall be made.

Authorised to brand.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the laws of this state, and ordinances of the cities of Baltimore and Frederick, as are contrary to, or inconsistent with the above provisions, be and the same are hereby repealed and annulled.

Repealing clause.