

CHAPTER 173:

CHAP. 173.

An act to repeal an act, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and nine, chapter one hundred and nine, as relates to the Market House Commissioners, and giving the same powers to the Burgess and Commissioners of Williamsport, in Washington county, under the act of Incorporation. Passed Mar. 3, 1832

WHEREAS, it has been desired by the citizens of Williamsport, in Washington county, that the act of assembly passed at November session, eighteen hundred and nine, chapter one hundred and nine, giving authority and power over the market house in said town, to certain commissioners, should be repealed, and that the said market house be under the jurisdiction and management of the burgess and commissioners of the said town—Therefore, Preamble.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act, entitled, An act to regulate the market house in the town of Williamsport, in Washington county, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and nine, chapter one hundred and nine, be, and the same is hereby repealed. Act of 1809 ch. 100 repealed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act the market house in the town of Williamsport, in Washington county, be, and the same is hereby placed under the control, management, and direction of the burgess and commissioners of the said town of Williamsport, who shall appoint such officers as they may think necessary, who shall manage and control the same in any manner they may deem wise and prudent, for the benefit and convenience of the inhabitants of said town. Future management conferred.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That should the rents of the stalls and stands of said market house not be sufficient to keep the same in repair, and to pay the charges which may be allowed the clerk of the market, the burgess and commissioners aforesaid, may then have power to levy a just and equitable tax on the assessable property within the corporate limits of said town, for the purpose of keeping in good repair and order, the said market house. Levy authorised.
