

LAWS OF MARYLAND,

ADJOURNED SESSION.

1835.

CHAPTER 345.

CHAP. 345.

An act to provide for building a Bridge over the Long Marsh Branch, at the place called the Sleeper. Passed May 30, 1836

WHEREAS, it has been represented to the General Assembly of Maryland, by the petition of sundry citizens of Queen Ann's and Caroline counties, that it would be to the mutual benefit and convenience of the people of said counties, if a bridge was built over the Long Marsh Branch, at the place called the Sleeper: Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Levy Courts of Queen Ann's and Caroline counties, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to assess and levy the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, on the assessable property in each of their respective counties, at the time of levying their next county rates, together with the commissions for collecting the same, which said assessment shall be made, levied, collected and paid to the commissioners hereinafter appointed or to their order, as soon as the same shall become payable in law, and in case the collector shall refuse or neglect to pay the same, the said commissioners shall have the same remedy for recovering the said sum as is prescribed by the act, entitled, an act for the speedy recovery of monies levied or received by sheriffs and collectors, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-seven.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That John B. Thomas, and Joseph K. Cook, of Queen Anns' county, and Joseph C. Talbot and Jacob W. Gibson, of Caroline
