

mittee of the Legislature to visit the State Wharves, to examine and report their condition.

In conclusion, it will be the pleasure, as it is the duty of the Comptroller, to render any assistance in his power, to your Honorable Body, in connection with this Department of the State Government.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. HENRY PURNELL,

Comptroller.