

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

ANNAPOLIS, January 10, 1863.

To the Governor of Maryland:

IN compliance with Section 9 of Article XXII of the Code of Public General Laws, I submit to your Excellency, the following Report:

The receipts into the Treasury for the fiscal year which commenced October 1st, 1861, and ended September 30th, 1862, as will be seen by reference to the Appendix, under the head of Statement A, which gives a detailed account thereof, amounted to the sum of $1,823,563.87, which includes the sum of $173,587.75 obtained from the sales in June last, of a part of the Stock of the "Maryland Defence Loan," (authorized by Chapter 143, of 1862,) and the premiums obtained thereon. The whole amount, so received, exceeds the receipts of the next preceding fiscal year, by the sum of $862,750.79; and exceeds the receipts of other preceding years, exclusive of receipts from sales of stocks, or from other extraordinary sources from $400,000.00 to $650,000.00. The sum received during the fiscal year, ended September 30th, 1862, when added to the apparent balance in the Treasury, September 30th, 1861, of $170,044.42, makes the whole sum available to the Treasury for the last fiscal year amount to $1,993,608.29.

It will be observed, by reference to the Tables, that the receipts have increased from almost all sources of Revenue, and from some of them quite heavily. Of this increase, only about $200,000 was derived from the additional direct tax of fifteen cents on each $100 of assessable property imposed by the Legislature at its last Session, inasmuch as at the close of the fiscal year, a large part of the tax of 1862
