REPORT
—OF THE—
COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY
—OF THE—
STATE OF MARYLAND.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Annapolis, January 3rd, 1881.

*To his Excellency, William T. Hamilton,
Governor of Maryland:*

I respectfully submit to your Excellency my report of the operations of the Treasury Department during the last fiscal year ended the 30th day of September, 1880, as required by the 9th section of the 22nd Article of the Code of Public General Laws.

This is my third annual report, and a comparison of the details and figures, to be found in the Appendix, with those of the previous two years, shows that the Treasury was in a better condition at the close of the year just ended, than at any previous time since I have been Comptroller.

The balance of $513,026.36 in the Treasury on September 30th, 1880, is larger by $115,045.23 than it was on September 30th, 1878; although the receipts for the past year were from ordinary sources of revenue alone, and to the receipts from like sources in 1878 were added $262,500.00 from the sale of Treasury Relief Bonds. The balance on September 30th, 1879, was only $43,182.63 greater than that on the same day last year; although the receipts in the year 1879 from the sale of Treasury Relief Bonds were $268,750.00, in addition to the usual sources of revenue, and the expenses of
