

LICENSES, ETC.

The accompanying tables from Nos. 1 to 11, both inclusive, show the various receipts into the Treasury from all sources during the fiscal year.

The receipts from Clerks of Courts and other officers as shown in Table No. 1, amounted to $898,323.91, an increase over 1892 of $2,938.35.

And from Registers of Wills (Table No. 2) the sum of $126,264.29, being $47,120.09 less than for the previous year. This decrease may be accounted for by the operation of the Act of 1892, Chapter 564, allowing the Registers of Wills to retain one-fourth of the gross receipts from tax on collateral inheritances, and from tax on commissions of executors and administrators.

The receipts from Collectors of taxes in the several Counties and the City of Baltimore, as shown in detail in Table No. 3, aggregated $892,310.16, being greater than the amount collected for 1892 by $90,814.41.

The receipts from tax on the gross receipts from Railroads and other Corporations, as shown in Table No. 5, amounted to $123,025.64, being less than for the previous year by $9,990.70. The receipts into the Treasury from tax on the Shares of Capital Stock of Incorporated Institutions for the fiscal year 1893, given in detail in Table No. 6, amounted to $107,102.43, an increase over 1892 of $5,828.06.
