

any such State agency and reverted into the general treasury of the State. This recommendation of the Comptroller's would be effective only upon approval of the Governor, who, as the authority that originated the Budget, appears to be the proper authority to finally act upon such a question at a time when the General Assembly is not in regular session.

Respectfully submitted,

E. BROOKE LEE, Comptroller.