

ARTICLE CI.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

State Industrial Accident Commission.

3. Salaries; expenses.

Suit—Methods of Insurance.

14. Duty of employers; injuries not included in this article. Failure of employer to comply—option of employee; defences abolished in case of suit. Employments not extra-hazardous.
15. Methods of insurance; employers who carry their own insurance; bond; deposit of securities. Penalty; court may remit.

State Accident Fund.

16. Creation and administration of.
17. Payments into.
26. Withdrawal from.
27. Administrative expenses; assessment of.

Application of Article; Extra-Hazardous Employments.

32. To what employments this article is applicable; all extra-hazardous employments.

Claims and Compensation; Benefits.

36. Amounts to be paid employees and dependents; aliens.
37. Medical, hospital and funeral expenses; proviso.
39. Application for compensation, when filed; death cases; proofs.
46. No compensation in case of self-inflicted injuries, wilful misconduct or intoxication.

Miscellaneous.

- 59A. Copy of docket entries and judgment to be sent commission.
- 60A. Employees of sub-contractor may proceed hereunder against principal contractor; sub-contractor liable to principal contractor.
63. Definition and explanation of terms; to whom article not applicable.

State Industrial Accident Commission.

1.

See notes to sections 14 and 56.

1914, ch. 800, sec. 3. 1916, ch. 713.

3. Each of the members of the State Industrial Accident Commission of Maryland shall receive a salary of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) per annum.