

to furnishing medical, nurse, hospital services and medicines to injured employees entitled thereto and for the payment therefor.

1914, ch. 800, sec. 38. 1916, ch. 597, sec. 39.

39. When an employee is entitled to compensation under this Article he shall file with the Commission his application together with a certificate of the physician, if any, who attended him, within thirty days after the beginning of his disability, for which compensation is claimed, and failure to do so unless excused by the Commission, either on the ground that the insurance carrier or the employer has not been prejudiced thereby, or for some other sufficient reason, shall be a bar to any claim under this Article.

When death results from injury the parties entitled to compensation under this Article, or someone in their behalf, shall make application for same to the Commission, which application must be accompanied with proof of death and proof of relationship showing the parties to be entitled to compensation under this Article, certificates of attending physician, if attended by a physician, and such other proof as may be required by the rules of the Commission.

1914, ch. 800, sec. 45. 1916, ch. 597, sec. 46.

46. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore or hereinafter contained, no employee or dependent of any employee shall be entitled to receive any compensation or benefits under this Article on account of any injury to or death of an employee caused by self-inflicted injury, the wilful misconduct, or where the injury or death resulted solely from the intoxication of the injured employee.

See notes to section 14.

The terms "just and equitable" used in this section, relate not to the amount of compensation but to the apportionment of same among the beneficiaries. See notes to section 54. Adleman v. Ocean Accident & G. Cor., 130 Md. 579.

54.

This section does not authorize the commission to abate, upon her marriage, benefits awarded to the sister of a decedent. The question of whether the commission may, under this section and section 50, change its award for the purpose of reapportioning the compensation among the dependents, not passed on. Adleman v. Ocean Accident & G. Cor., 130 Md. 573.
