

setting the poor to work, and admitting vagrants, beggars and other indigent persons to said almshouse, and for the good government and management of the almshouse in said county as shall seem proper to them.

1922, ch. 527, sec. 3C.

3. The County Commissioners of Caroline County shall on or before the second Monday in December in every year appoint some suitable person to be overseer or keeper of the almshouse and manager of the farm connected therewith, who shall enter upon the discharge of his office on January 1st, succeeding the date of his appointment, and they shall appoint so many officers and employees of the almshouse as they may deem requisite and fix and establish their compensation and make and pass such orders and regulations to govern their acts and duties.

1922, ch. 527, sec. 4D.

4. The said overseer or keeper of the almshouse shall receive all sums of money arising from the sale of products raised on said farms connected with the almshouse and shall within ten days from the receipt thereof pay the same to the Board of County Commissioners of Caroline County.

1922, ch. 527, sec. 5E.

5. The County Commissioners may remove such overseer or keeper, and any other officer or employee, at their discretion, and appoint another or others in his or their place at any time during the year whenever in their judgment the interests of the county may require, and the said overseer and the employees shall at all times discharge their duties subject to the direction, authority, control and order of the said County Commissioners. Provided, further, that by and with the consent of the County Commissioners, the County Farm Agent for Caroline County may, subject to the direction and control of the said County Commissioners, direct and supervise the management and cultivation of said almshouse farm, and in which event the overseer and all other employees on said farm shall be under the authority of said County Farm Agent.

1922, ch. 527, sec. 6F.

6. They shall require such overseer or keeper, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, to give a bond, with security approved by them, payable to the "County Commissioners of Caroline County," in the penalty of one thousand dollars, conditioned as follows, to wit: "The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound A. B., as overseer or keeper of the alms or poor house in Caroline County, and manager of the farm connected therewith, shall well and truly discharge his duties in said station, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law."

1922, ch. 527, sec. 7G.

7. That if any keeper or overseer of said almshouse, or any officer thereof, shall neglect or refuse for the space of thirty days at the expira-
