

1918, ch. 122, sec. 21.

1035. Every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this Act, unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable before any justice of the peace or the Circuit Court of the County within which such offense is committed and shall be brought by warrant or indictment upon the oath or information of any member of said Commission or any employee thereof, and the offender shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding $100 or thirty days in the County jail, or both, in the discretion of the court. Where such act or omission is of a continuing nature and is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or regulation formulated thereunder, a conviction for one offense shall not be a bar to a conviction for a continuation of such offense subsequent to the first or any succeeding conviction.

1036. The Public Service Commission of Maryland is hereby given jurisdiction to determine upon appeal, the reasonableness of all assessments, tax levies or service charges, as in the case of public service corporations, upon the written complaint of any one financially interested therein, under such regulations as said Public Service Commission may from time to time order and provide. All appeals shall be taken within thirty days from the date of the promulgation or levy of any such assessment, tax levy or service charge by said Sanitary Commission.

1037. All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of their inconsistency, provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken as restricting any control which the State Board of Health of Maryland is empowered to exercise within the Sanitary District.

1924, ch. 252, sec. 1.

1038. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to use handle, tamper with, obstruct, interfere with, deface or destroy any of the property of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, including pipes, fittings, fire-plugs, pumps, engines, appliances, wires or other fixtures or equipment owned or used by the said Commission in the construction and operation of its systems within the Washington Suburban Sanitary District except under such rules and regulations as the said Commission may adopt.

1924, ch. 252, sec. 2.

1039. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation within the Sanitary District created by Chapter 122 of the Acts of 1918, or upon any watershed from which the said Commission gets its water supply, whether within or without said District, to leave unburied for a longer period than twenty-four hours any dead animal or animals or fecal mat-
