

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 240. 1873, ch. 254. 1894, ch. 133.

394. He may be allowed for the removal of one convict to the penitentiary, house of refuge, house of reformation or any other institution for the punishment or reformation of persons convicted of crimes or other offenses, the sum of thirty dollars, and for every additional prisoner convicted at the same term of court, or found guilty at the same time by a justice of the peace, and sentenced to one of the said institutions, an additional compensation of ten dollars, and said compensation shall include all expenses incidental to the removal of said convict, but nothing herein contained is to interfere with any order of the court requiring the sheriff to remove a prisoner at any other time.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 241. 1860, Art. 19, sec. 200.

395. He shall be entitled to fifty cents for the delivery of each certificate of appointment of trustees of the poor.

1924, ch. 66.

396. In all cases arising in Somerset County where a landlord is authorized to distrain for rent due, and where a warrant of distress for rent is now allowed by law to a landlord, such warrant may be directed to the Sheriff of said County, and said Sheriff is hereby directed in all cases to execute such warrants of distress, either himself or through his sworn deputy. Any Sheriff of Somerset County neglecting or refusing in any case to execute a warrant of distress for rent, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not less than ten dollars, and not more than twenty-five dollars, for each and every offense.

TERRAPINS.

(All local laws relating to Terrapins were repealed by ch. 266, Acts 1929. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 39.)

TRESPASS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 245. 1860, Art. 19, sec. 201.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 246. 1860, Art. 19, sec. 202.

398. Any person who shall advisedly and maliciously, with the intent to injure the owner of any land, house or building in said county, cut down any tree, or cut down, break, dig or pull up, or in any manner destroy
