ALMSHOUSE.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 1. 1868, ch. 31.

1. On or before the first Monday of March, in each and every year, the county commissioners of Washington county shall appoint three discreet persons, inhabitants of said county, to act as trustees of the poor in said county, for one year and when their successors shall be appointed.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 2. 1868, ch. 31.

2. The clerk of the county commissioners shall, within five days after such appointment, make out and deliver to each of said trustees, a certificate of his appointment.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 3. 1868, ch. 31.

3. The trustees, so appointed, and notified of their appointment, shall accept said office, under the penalty of twenty-five dollars, and shall meet within ten days after their said appointment, at the almshouse of said county, and severally qualify by taking the following oath: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will well and faithfully execute and perform the trust and duties reposed in me as trustee of the poor of Washington county, without favor, partiality or affection, according to the best of my skill and knowledge"; which oath may be administered by any justice of the peace for said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 4. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 4.

4. All vacancies happening by non-acceptance, death, removal out of the county, or disqualification of any of said trustees shall be filled by the county commissioners at their next meeting thereafter.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 5. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 5.

5. No member of the general assembly, clergyman, attorney or practicing physician, shall be obliged to accept said office, or be liable to the penalty for refusing; and no judge, justice of the peace or sheriff, or any one who has not the qualifications to be a member of the general assembly, shall be eligible thereto.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 6. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 6.

6. The said trustees are a corporation by the name of "The trustees of the poor of Washington county," and by that name shall have perpetual
