

FOXES.

1918, ch. 317, sec. 1. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 52.

52. Any person or persons who shall shoot at or shoot a fox that is being pursued by a dog or dogs, or shall dig out or in any manner take from any den a female fox or her young whelps or kill or in any manner cause the death of such female fox or her young whelps during the period she is suckling them, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before a Justice of the Peace shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense, one-half of such fine or fines to be paid to the informer and the other half to the Board of County School Commissioners for the use of the Public Schools of said County. Nothing in this Act to be construed to prevent the killing of said foxes at any time by any person while they are in pursuit of his or her poultry; provided, however, that the killing of said foxes be done within a reasonable time after such pursuit or the killing of such poultry.

1918, ch. 317, sec. 2. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 53.

53. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

1922, ch. 276, sec. 2. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 54.

54. In order to encourage the sport of fox hunting and to prevent the indiscriminate and unnecessary destruction of foxes, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to shoot at or shoot a fox that is being pursued by a dog or dogs.

1922, ch. 276, sec. 3. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 55.

55. It shall be unlawful to liberate any fox bred or raised in captivity or imported into Baltimore County, unless for the purpose of immediate chase.

1922, ch. 276, sec. 4. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 56.

56. Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, shall be fined not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars, nor more than fifty ($50) dollars, for each offense, one-half of such fine or fines to be paid to the informer and the other half to the Board of County School Commissioners, for the use of the public schools of said county.

1927, ch. 406. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 57.

57. It shall be unlawful to trap, sell, buy or expose for sale any fox or fox hide in Baltimore County, and it shall be unlawful to transport any fox or fox hide from any place in Baltimore County to any place without Baltimore County, and possession of any fox or fox hide shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section, but nothing in this Act shall be construed as to prevent the killing of foxes at any time by any person
